State Law Library hosts credit card reform workshop For immediate release Friday, January 28, 2011

The State Law Library will host a free informational session on the Credit Card Reform Act at a brown bag lunch at noon on Monday, January 31. Debra Lee, Director of Education at Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Southern West Virginia, will explain how the act affects credit terms, interest rates, and fees associated with credit cards for the average consumer.

The workshop will be held in Room E-314 in the East Wing of the State Capitol in Charleston. Bring your own bag lunch. The session is free, open to the public, and no registration is required.

Metered parking is available behind the Culture Center near the parking garage and along Washington Street. For information, call the State Law Library at (304) 558-2607.
