Clerks' Offices will be closed on October 4 due to special election

For immediate release Monday, August 29, 2011

CHARLESTON, W.Va. – Clerks' offices throughout West Virginia will be closed on October 4 due to the special gubernatorial election.

Special elections held statewide are legal holidays. As a result, the Supreme Court Clerk's Office, circuit clerks' offices, and magistrate court clerks' offices will be closed.

Chief Justice Margaret L. Workman, on behalf of the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia, announced Monday that October 4 as a legal holiday will be a day off for employees of the West Virginia judiciary.
