Justice Davis to help break ground for Lewis County annex

For immediate release Monday, April 30, 2012

WESTON, W.Va. – Supreme Court Justice Robin Jean Davis and Supreme Court Administrative Director Steve Canterbury will attend the groundbreaking ceremony for the new Lewis County Judicial Annex at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, May 2.

The ceremony will be held at the site of the new building behind the existing courthouse, at 117 Court St., Weston. A reception will follow.

The new annex, which is expected to be open within two years, will house courtrooms and offices for circuit court, family court, magistrate court, probation officers and the circuit clerk. Other county offices will be consolidated in the existing courthouse.
