Justice Benjamin to attend three drug court events this week

For immediate release Tuesday, November 27, 2012

CHARLESTON, W.Va. – Supreme Court Justice Brent D. Benjamin is attending three drug court events in West Virginia this week.

He was scheduled to be a speaker at the opening of the Greenbrier County Adult Drug Court at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 27, at the Greenbrier County Courthouse in Lewisburg.

He also is scheduled to speak at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 28, at an adult drug court graduation in Moundsville. Two people will graduate from the Northern Panhandle Second Circuit Adult Drug Court.

Justice Benjamin also will speak at a graduation ceremony for four juveniles who have completed a juvenile drug court program in Charles Town. That event is closed to the press and the public because it involves juveniles.

Justice Benjamin is available for interviews by telephone or in person before or after the events. Contact Steve Cohen at 304-340-2317 or steve.cohen@courtswv.gov.
