Mercer Magistrate to take service dog to school

For immediate release

PRINCETON, W.Va. – Mercer County Magistrate Sandra J. Dorsey will take her own personal service dog, a mastiff named Officer Kodiak, to visit an elementary school on Tuesday, Oct. 4, as part of the school's safety day.

Magistrate Massey will talk to third- and fourth-graders from 8:15 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. at Mercer Elementary School, 1200 Mercer Street in Princeton.

Magistrate Dorsey has had her service dog for several years. He helps her with walking and balance because she has nerve damage in her feet.
